ventional type question papers of the preceding examinations for the benefit of candidates for the following examinations :— I

(i) Civil Services (Main) Examination;

(ii) Engineering Services Examination;

(iii) Indian Forest Service Examination;

(iv) IES/ISS Examination;

(v) Section Officers/Stenographers (Group 'B'/Grade I) Limited Departmental Competitive Examination.

These pamphlets are available for sale from the 'Kitab Mahal' and some other outlets. In the case of SSC, most of the question papers are of objective type.

The Staff Selection Commission, however, brings out a quarterly journal "Lodestar" (in English) and "Dhruvtara" (in Hindi) containing useful guidance material, including sample questions, for the candidates appearing for their major examinations. This journal is quite popular with the candidates. The existing steps being taken by the Union Public Service Commission for the guidance of candidates for their examinations are considered adequate.
